Local stations just fail to notify it's listeners about weather and traffic in a timely manner. That is why it is crutially important to let XM provide us with that information. It is a matter of safety to have timely notification about bad weather!